Hello everyone!

What a great start to the 2016 season! As many of you get further into your softball-filled summer, here are a few things to look forward to in the coming months.

The international softball world welcomed an announcement by the International Olympic Committee (IOC) Executive Board to support the inclusion of softball and baseball among a new sports package for the 2020 Olympic Games in Tokyo. To have received this support from the IOC Executive Board is an honor and a great endorsement for us to receive. While this is exciting news, please remember that this is another step in the process and that the IOC will vote before the Rio Games in August on whether to include baseball and softball in the 2020 Olympics in Tokyo.

We’re also very excited to have partnered with Major League Baseball (MLB) in joining USA Baseball by supporting the “PLAY BALL” initiative (PlayBall.org). Highlighting the many ways that softball and baseball can be played, Play Ball also provides players, parents and coaches with the information and resources to help with proper play and instruction. What better way to celebrate the partnership than by holding a Play Ball event in Oklahoma City! Together with the Oklahoma City Dodgers, an affiliate of the Los Angeles Dodgers, the MLB and our National Office staff, kids from the YMCA of Greater Oklahoma, the Boys and Girls Club and local youth centers got a firsthand experience of what makes playing baseball and softball so much fun. There were agility drills, base running and even a home run derby.

On the National Team side, we have another busy year for our National Team programs. Members of the Women’s National Team (WNT) made their first international trip of the season June 23-26 as the team headed to Tokyo and Sendai, Japan for the USA vs Japan All-Star Series. Both the WNT and Women’s Elite Team will return to Oklahoma City for the World Cup of Softball XI July 5-10. From there, the WNT will head to Surrey, B.C., Canada... for the World Baseball Softball Confederation (WBSC) Women's World Championship, slated for July 15-24, where they will look to reclaim the No. 1 spot in the world against reigning world champions Japan. Rounding out the 2016 season for the WNT is the Japan Cup, which will be held September 2-4. The Women's Elite Team will also head to Marietta, Ga. July 22-28 for training in conjunction with the USA Softball JO Cup.

On the men's side, our Junior Men’s National Team has begun their season in Normal, Ill. for training camp, followed by additional training in Ashland before heading to Midland, Mich. for the WBSC Junior Men’s World Championship. Our Men’s Slow Pitch National Team will also be competing this summer as the team returns to U.S. soil for Border Battle VIII and the Slow Pitch Showdown July 4-6. Please visit our national website at www.ASAUSASoftball.com for each team’s complete schedule and make plans to come out to support our great athletes in their quest to bring home Gold.

We have a lot of exciting things lined up in the coming months, so be sure to visit ASAUSASoftball.com for the latest!

Every year, the Amateur Softball Association (ASA) of America has 924,000 Junior Olympic (JO) athletes playing on more than 77,000 teams while over 1 million adults play on 88,000 teams across the United States. Meet Avery, Britney, Tanith and Tess, four athletes who play ASA/USA Softball!

AVERY, 11
Pittsfield, Mass. • CT Mirage – 12U • Girls’ 12-Under Fast Pitch • Pitcher, First Base, Outfield

HER START
When I was five years old. I’ve been swinging at a wiffle ball since I can remember, so as soon as I was old enough, my parents signed me up for softball in our town league.

TOUGHEST OBSTACLE
In the beginning of 2015 my pitching and travel ball coach decided to stop coaching. We had been planning the travel season together and she was a big reason I fell in love with the game. For a few months I questioned playing travel at all. I had to realize her leaving coaching had nothing to do with me and that I could continue to get better and still love the game with new coaches. I still miss her, but am more in love with the game than ever.

BEST EXPERIENCE PLAYING
The best experience was last year during a tournament. I made a tough catch in left field to win a very close game and the championship! All my teammates and my coaches ran out to hug and congratulate me.

GOAL
My goal is to play Division 1 softball, hopefully at the University of Florida, and win the NCAA Women’s College World Series. Then I want to play professional in the summers and travel around the country doing clinics in the off-season. After that I want to become a pitching coach for a D1 school.

FUN FACTS
I just went to my first pro series last weekend and saw the Dallas Charge play the Pennsylvania Rebellion. Watching those players made me want to get better and even play pro!
BRITTNEY, 14
Raytown, Mo.
KC Dirt Devils – 14U Shelley
Girls’ 14-Under Class B Fast Pitch
Pitcher, Infield

HER START
I began playing softball at the age of 7. My dad wanted me to play a sport and I always said no because it is a guy's sport. I finally agreed to T-ball with a team full of guys and one other girl. Finally I realized there was a thing called softball so I switched over.

FAVORITE THING ABOUT SOFTBALL
My favorite thing about playing softball is hitting. My hitting has really picked up in this past year. So it is my favorite part of the game and that’s how you score. I also love the competition.

ROLE MODELS
To be honest, my role models are my dad and my best friend. My dad is a role model because he is the one that pushes me because he knows what I want. He is one of the best coaches I have ever had! Then my best friend, she is another pitcher on our team and an outfielder. She is there whenever I need her and as much as I love her, she is my competition. I try to beat her and win.

TOUGHEST OBSTACLE
The toughest obstacle that I have had to overcome in this particular sport is probably my knee injury. We had to do an indoor practice and a catcher fell on my knee. It hurt so bad that I was caught limping. One day I got out of the car and I just started balling. It hurt so bad! So we went to the doctors and said it was inflamed so I need a knee support.
FACES ON THE FIELD

TANITH, 13
Kansas City, Mo.
KC Dirt Devils – 14U Shelley
Girls’ 14-Under Class B Fast Pitch
Catcher, Infield, Outfield

HER START
I started my first season of coach pitch softball in the summer after first grade. I started playing because all of my friends were playing, and then I started to develop an interest in the sport. I’ve loved the game ever since!

PROUDEST ACCOMPLISHMENT
I don’t think I can choose which accomplishment I am the most proud of. When I accomplish something, I know that I am getting better. I don’t think that offense is more important than defense, or vice versa. I just know that I help my team every time I succeed and reach a goal.

FAVORITE THING ABOUT SOFTBALL
There are so many things that I love about softball. I don’t think I can choose!! I love hitting the ball to the fence (I haven’t hit a home run yet, but I’m keeping my fingers crossed) and watching all the runs score and cheer while I’m rounding the bases. I love framing that perfect, third strike, last out pitch and watching as my team cheers in triumph and the pitcher’s face lights up and boosts the confidence and morale of everyone. The atmosphere of the dugout and the intensity of the game is enough to make anyone want to get up at 4 o’clock in the morning for a long day of softball!!

BEST ADVICE
Just be thankful that you get to be here, playing the game. There are many people around the world who can’t play sports, and would love to be doing what you’re doing. Always have good sportsmanship and a good attitude. Most importantly, make sure you’re having fun!
Tess, 14
Elsberry, Mo.
St. Louis Chaos - 01
Girls’ 14-Under Fast Pitch
Catcher, Third Base

Her Start
I started playing tee ball when I was 5 years old and also practiced with my older brother’s select baseball team.

Best Experience Playing
The best experience I have had in softball was when my team and I took sixth place at nationals and the brothers of the players all painted their chests to spell our team name and cheered us on.

Toughest Obstacle
The toughest obstacle I have had to overcome is getting to and from practices. We live an hour and a half away from our training building and have to drive there four times a week.

Proudest Accomplishment
I am most proud of the fact that I was able to change my swing from what it was to what it is now and having success with my new swing. I’ve hit 5 home runs so far this year.

RETURN OF OLYMPIC SOFTBALL, BASEBALL AT TOKYO 2020 GAMES SUPPORTED BY IOC EXECUTIVE BOARD

The World Baseball Softball Confederation (WBSC) and ASA/USA Softball welcomed an announcement by the International Olympic Committee (IOC) Executive Board to support the inclusion of softball and baseball among a new sports package for the 2020 Olympic Games in Tokyo.

“What great news to receive for the international softball and baseball communities,” said ASA/USA Softball Executive Director Craig Cress. “To receive support from the IOC Executive Board for softball and baseball’s return to the Tokyo 2020 Games is an honor and a great endorsement for us to receive. We look forward to the vote in August during the IOC Session in Rio de Janeiro.”

Softball and baseball’s global reach, loyal fan-base and positioning across many of the biggest sports markets, including Japan, offers a unique opportunity to further spread and elevate the Olympic brand while connecting with new audiences and more young people, said the WBSC President Riccardo Fraccari. Today’s IOC Executive Board recommendation helps to highlight the growing global appeal and popularity of softball and baseball, particularly among young people. Over the last decade, and with the merger of baseball and softball that established the WBSC in 2013, baseball and softball stakeholders have worked to solidify the gender-balanced global bat-and-ball sport, which now represents 65 million athletes from 213 national federation and associate members in over 140 countries.

“It is an honor for our global sport -- and a great day for our millions of male and female athletes, and fans around the world -- to be represented within this new and innovative youth-focused Olympic sports package," said Fraccari. "On behalf of our sport, we thank IOC President Thomas Bach for his Agenda 2020 vision -- which has sparked this Olympic evolution -- and the entire IOC Executive Board for today's recommendation. The WBSC also reconfirms our deepest gratitude to Tokyo 2020 leadership for placing its trust in our sport. Olympic Baseball and Softball in Japan would be the biggest and most exciting international competition in the history of our sport, and would help the Olympic Games touch the entire host nation and worldwide community."

In four Olympic Games appearances, the USA Softball Women’s National Team claimed three gold medals and one silver medal finish while setting numerous international records and are one of only two women’s sports involved in the Olympic movement to capture three consecutive gold medals. In 2012, three-time Olympic gold medalist Lisa Fernandez and the 2004 U.S. Olympic Softball Team were honored for their accolades with induction into the U.S. Olympic Hall of Fame. Members of the 2004 U.S. Olympic Softball Team set 18 Olympic records in Athens. Among the team records set were the most hits (73), highest team batting average (.343) and highest slugging percentage (.559). Fernandez set the individual record for batting average with .545 while Crystl Bustos’ 10 RBI and five home runs were also records.

A final vote on the composition of the sport program for the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games will be taken at the IOC Session in Rio de Janeiro in August, and, if approved, would constitute “the most comprehensive evolution of the Olympic program in modern history,” the IOC stated.

ASA/USA Softball recently announced their partnership with Major League Baseball (MLB) in joining USA Baseball by supporting the “PLAY BALL” initiative (PlayBall.org). The initiative, which was launched in June 2015, encourages widespread participation in all forms of softball and baseball activities among all age groups, especially youth.

“We are thrilled to partner with MLB and USA Baseball for the Play Ball initiative,” said ASA/USA Softball Executive Director Craig Cress. “This partnership allows us to continue in our mission to grow the game and provide opportunities for youth to get involved in our great sport at any level. We’ve had the opportunity to participate in Play Ball events throughout the year, and to see the excitement and joy that picking up a bat and ball brings to the kids that attend speaks volumes about our game. We’re excited to spread that excitement, and grow the game all the way to the grassroots level.”

PLAY BALL highlights the many ways baseball and softball can be played, whether at Championship or recreational play or something as simple as playing catch or a game of wiffle ball. The initiative also provides players, parents and coaches with the information and resources to help with proper play and instruction. Through a partnership with ASA/USA Softball and USA Baseball, PLAY BALL brings awareness and accessibility to the program’s initiatives through special events and promotional opportunities. ASA/USA Softball will also help promote PLAY BALL throughout the 70 local associations across the U.S. as well as assist MLB and its baseball clubs in conducting Softball Series events through various local associations.

PlayBall.org is the PLAY BALL initiative’s online home and is accessible via MLB.com, USABaseball.com, USASoftball.com and other partner websites. PlayBall.org features youth-oriented content, including baseball trivia and quizzes, and video highlights from MLB games, social media content, photos and a “PlayBall Near You” interactive map that locates local community leagues. The site also features access to video podcasts and highlights from MLB Network’s new youth-focused show “Play Ball,” which features interviews and on-field demonstrations with top players throughout the league, including Nolan Arenado, Curtis Granderson, Matt Kemp, Francisco Lindor and Evan Longoria. “Play Ball” airs on Saturdays at 10:00 a.m. ET.

PlayBall.org also links to USABaseball.com, which provides players, parents and coaches with the information and resources to help with proper play and instruction, including education videos featuring Hall of Famer and MLB Network analyst John Smoltz, Chicago Cubs manager Joe Maddon, and Kansas City Royals Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations and General Manager Dayton Moore, among others. Health and safety information, including through the Pitch Smart and Play Sun Smart programs, also is available.

“Major League Baseball is pleased to continue strengthening our ties with the governing bodies of our sport with this partnership with USA Softball,” said Tony Reagins, Senior Vice President, Major League Baseball. “The growth of softball is important to the future prosperity of our sport, and their support of PLAY BALL is a welcome and natural collaboration of this relationship.”

Sierra Romero selected for the prestigious USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year

Sierra Romero (Murrieta, Calif.) was selected as the 2016 USA Softball National Collegiate Player of the Year. Romero, an infielder, helped lead Michigan to its 12th NCAA Women’s College World Series (WCWS) appearance and helped the Wolverines make back-to-back appearances in Oklahoma City. This marks the first time an athlete from Michigan has won the prestigious award and is the first honor for an athlete from the Big Ten Conference.

“It’s an unreal feeling to win the USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year award,” said Romero. “I’m glad that my team is here to celebrate it with me. It would not be the same if I was here without them.”

The 2016 Big Ten Player of the Year, Romero ranks in the Top 10 in the country with a .465 batting average, 19 home runs and a .585 on-base percentage while ranking in the Top 5 in the nation with 77 RBI and a .916 slugging percentage. Earning a unanimous selection to the All-Big Ten first team each year in her career, Romero became just the second player in conference history to garner three Big Ten Conference Player of the Year honors.

A three-time NFCA All-American, Romero already owns the NCAA career records in runs (300) and grand slams (11) and has 301 career hits and 304 career RBI, becoming the first member of the 300-300-300 club.

In her four seasons at Michigan, Romero has compiled a .444 batting average, crushing out 82 home runs for a career slugging percentage of .889 while compiling a .586 on-base percentage over four years. Headlining a successful senior class, Romero has helped guide the Wolverines to three trips to the NCAA WCWS and four Big Ten titles.

“It’s such a great honor and a great reflection of Sierra Romero,” said Michigan Head Coach Carol Hutchins. “She’s one of the greatest players to ever play the game and really one of the finest people to ever play the game. We’re so happy for her and really proud of her.”

The other two finalists for the 2016 award were 2016 Southeastern Conference (SEC) Player of the Year Kasey Cooper (Auburn) and First-Team All-SEC honoree Aleshia Ocasio (Florida).

Q. My team hasn’t qualified yet, so how can I find a qualifier?
A. ASA/USA national qualifiers are held in the girls’ fast pitch division and are used to qualify teams for ASA/USA National Championship Finals. You can find a list of national qualifiers for regional tournament and national championships at ASAUSAsoftball.com.

Q. How can I check on rules to be used for championship play?
A. The “Official Rules of Softball”, the participant manual that governs Amateur Softball Association (ASA) of America/USA Softball play, is just one of the many benefits of registering to play ASA/USA Softball. For information on receiving a participant manual, contact your local association commissioner. You can also download the Official Rules of Softball on the App Store and Google Play!

Q. How do I know if my bat is approved for ASA play?
A. On our national website, we maintain a section called “Certified Equipment”, which has the most up to date information on approved bats. Only items that are certified equipment can be used in ASA/USA Softball play. Remember that equipment may be subject to testing at games and tournaments, and could be ruled invalid for use, even if it is a certified bat. Should you have concerns with equipment testing, contact the Umpire-In-Chief of the event as soon as possible.

Q. What is the best bat to use for ASA Softball?
A. ASA/USA Softball does not offer recommendations on equipment, other than enforcing the use of “Certified Equipment”.

For a list of bats that are approved for ASA play, click “Certified Equipment” at ASAUSAsoftball.com.

Q. Do I need to be ACE-certified to coach my Junior Olympic (JO) youth team?
A. The national office requires that one JO coach present in the dugout during national championship play must be certified through the ACE (Achieve, Certify, Educate) Coaching Certification program. Additionally, all JO team personnel in the dugout must have passed a background check. Local associations may have stricter requirements for JO coaches. Contact your local association commissioner for the most accurate information regarding JO coaching requirements in your area.

Q. Can we get discounts when traveling for tournaments?
A. In addition to the discounts that you may receive by using tournament partners, Hilton Hotels offers discounts to ASA/USA Softball teams when booked through http://teamusa.hhonors.com/29/. Hilton also donates a portion of the proceeds from bookings to USA Softball.

ASA/USA Softball has national discounts available to all ASA members at Enterprise and Hertz. Visit ASAUSAsoftball.com to find the discount codes when booking your rental car!

Being a family member of Team USA has its benefits! Take advantage of partnership travel discounts when flying United Airlines!

When using Journey House Travel (800-726-0051) for bookings, additional discounts may be available.
Annually, ASA/USA Softball conducts over 90 National Championships in each of its major disciplines of the sport - slow, fast and modified pitch. Since each competitor must earn their berth into an ASA/USA Softball National through a network of qualifying tournaments conducted throughout the season, the champion goes home as the unchallenged best team in the nation for their respected division each year.

Qualifying for ASA/USA Softball National Championships begin at the local level with league championships, state championships and eventually national qualifiers. Each year over 30,000 players qualify to compete in an ASA National Championship. Cities from across America annually bid for these celebrated events, largely because of the economic impact they will make on their communities.

The Amateur Softball Association (ASA)/USA Softball recently announced a partnership with the Wounded Warrior Amputee Softball Team (WWAST).

“ASA/USA Softball has a long history of supporting our military members and veterans while honoring the sacrifices they have given and continue to give,” said ASA/USA Softball Executive Director Craig Cress. “In partnering with the Wounded Warrior Amputee Softball Team, we are excited to further our support while helping bring awareness to their team and program. It’s truly an honor to call the Wounded Warrior Amputee Softball Team a partner, and we’re looking forward to spreading their inspirational message throughout the U.S. and the world.”

Comprised of competitive, athletic veterans and active duty soldiers who have lost limbs, the WWAST travel the country playing able-bodied teams in competitive, celebrity and exhibition softball games. Bringing a special side of softball, courage and inspiration, the team includes individuals with a variety of amputations whose mission is “To inspire and educate others while enhancing the health and welfare of Wounded Warrior Amputees.”

“The Wounded Warrior Amputee Softball Team is proud to have ASA/USA Softball as a partner,” said Dennis Wince, WWAST Executive Director. “As the strongest softball organization in the country, ASA/USA Softball will help the Wounded Warrior Amputee Softball Team continue to grow and attract new fans across the country.”

In addition to their on-field competitions, the WWAST also holds Kids Camps, which provide the opportunity to inspire and educate children who attend the camps. The team also partners with the Johnny Mac Soldiers Fund, which assists with the college education for children of fallen veterans.

“As a player and Chairman of the Board of Directors for the Wounded Warrior Amputee Softball Team, I can say we are excited to partner with ASA/USA Softball and to participate in additional ASA/USA Softball events,” said Josh Wege. “ASA/USA Softball is the standard of excellence in softball and their values of teamwork, fair play, common good, and promotion/education align with those of our team.”

Above all, the WWAST supports and honors soldiers and veterans sacrifices, while showing other amputees and fans watching that life without a limb is limitless.
The Wounded Warrior Amputee Softball Team hosted their annual Kids Camp on the campus of George Mason University in Fairfax, VA from June 13-18. The Kids Camp provided an opportunity to inspire and educate the kids who attend the camp as well as anyone who had the opportunity to attend the event. This year’s Kids Camp brought together 24 children with an amputation or who are missing a limb with all expenses paid for the child and an adult including travel, meals and lodging. The kids not only honed their softball skills while being mentored by the players of the WWAST all week, but they also got the chance to do some fun things in the Washington D.C. area to include a tour of the United States Capitol Building and a visit to the National Air and Space Museum Udvar-Hazy Center. The week culminated on Friday evening with the “big game” where the 12 kids from the “Red Rangers” played against 12 kids from the “Blue Dynamite”. Afterwards, the WWAST showed their skills against a local celebrity team. In the end there were only winners when everyone came out of this game a better player and a true warrior.
